MISS ELEANOR SULLIVAN BRIDE OF LIEUT. SPICER.

A beautiful wedding took place last evening in the hostess house of the Marine Barracks, Quantico, when Miss Eleanor Sullivan, daughter of Lieut. Col. and Mrs. Raymond B. Sullivan, of Quantico, became the bride of Lieut. Donald Spicer, son of Lieut. Col. and William F. Spicer, retired Marine officer.

The bride, who entered on the arm of her father, wore a gown of white georgette over silver cloth made on simple lines. It was trimmed with hand-made chiffon roses around the waist and had two panels in front, the ends of which were trimmed with deep flounces of lace. The train was of Brussels lace and the tulle veil was trimmed with a wreath of orange blossoms. The bride also wore a string of pearls, the gift of her grandmother, and carried a shower bouquet of roses and lilies-of-the-valley.

The bride was attended by her sisters.

ter, Miss Jeannette Sullivan, maid of honor, wearing a pale blue georgette gown trimmed with hand-made flowers and silver blue ribbon, and by Mrs. Ralph D. Spaulding, wife of Lieut. Col. Spaulding, as matron-of-honor, who wore an unusual gown, an embroidered pink over gold cloth—pink is a cloth made in the Philippines.

The bridesmaids were Miss Margaret Hodgson, of Portsmouth, Va.; Miss Isabel Bernard, of Fredericksburg, Va.; and Miss Sarah Ludlum, of Philadelphia. The bridesmaids wore huffed organdie, one of peach-color and two of green.

The four girls were daughters of majors in the Marine Corps, two of whom were clad in pink organdie and two in lavender organdie frocks; all carried mixed sweet peas. The flower girls were Miss Virginia Henley, Miss Christina Lutz, Miss Betty Price and Miss Priscilla Kingsbury. The little ring bearer was Ralph Spaulding, Jr., who wore a pale blue suit.

The groom was attended by his brother, Lois Spicer. The ushers were Lieut. L. A. Dessez, Lieut. Walter G. Farrell, Lieut. S. G. Bartlett and Lieut. Louis G. De Haven, all of whom wore their white marine corps uniforms.

The ceremony was performed by two Marine chaplains, E. C. Niver and Ernest R. Riddle. A reception in the hostess house followed the ceremony, after which Lieut. and Mrs. Spicer left for a brief wedding trip. They will reside at Quantico temporarily.
